HALFDAY THAI VILLAGE TREK

Leave modern life behind to hike into the mountains. Start from Avana Retreat to trek through the nearby forest before you reach the top of a tranquil mountain where you can behold the breathtaking views over Thai villages. Continue to walk on narrow dirt paths, passing local cornfields, cassava fields, bamboo forests, and paddy rice fields to visit other villages. On the trek, you might see farmers, and hear buffalo's bell ringing out in the air. You also visit a local house and listen to them sharing stories and traditional life customs in an ethnic village. Return to Avana Retreat by shuttle van.

FULLDAY HMONG VILLAGE TREK

Begin your excursion with a 30 minutes shuttle van ride to the home of ethnic Muong people. From here, you trek further up until you can almost feel the mountain in you while taking in the sights and sounds of the remote region along the walk. Trek through a beautiful meadow dotted with Hmong houses. Here and there, you can see Hmong children in their colorful clothes sitting on the rocks playing and their parents working in the garden. Walk on the winding red dirt roads and listen to the music of buffalo neck bells when they are roaming on their own trails before trekking back down to a village where your shuttle van is waiting for you.

A tasty picnic lunch is served mid-tour with an opportunity to rest and soak up the tranquil mountain atmosphere.
